

The Ormsby Plan.

"The House of refuge provided for in this act shall be built upon the grounds owned by the State and purchased for the State Prison, and situated in Washoe county; and the walls thereon at present standing shall be used as part of, and an enclosure for, the said House of Refuge."

We called attention some days ago to Assembly Bill No. 38, introduced by Speaker Mighels, and providing for the establishment and maintenance of a house of refuge. The bill is good enough in purpose although susceptible of some improvements as regards the definition of the school. Section 20 is however the key of the bill, we publish it as a sample of Ormsby county tactics, as well as to show how short a time is required for the ordinary mortal to ripen into the astute Legislator. Another thing also is clearly shown, viz: the facility with which Mr. Mighels can forget the State in his zeal for hoodlums and Ormsby county. We do not consider the Speaker's movement as serious enough to need much opposition, as its intent is too plain, and the manner proposed too questionable. Reno is perfectly content to leave any such proposed injustice to the decision of Legislators upon the merits of the case.

Meanwhile we want Mr. Mighels and his supporters to have all due credit for this attempt at snap judgment, and for that reason will explain the matter.

The Carson papers have promised some time since to explain the matter of title to Farmer Treadway's alkali patch near Carson. They have engaged to clear the whole matter up, but beyond a senseless upbraiding of the Governor's course, nothing has come of these promises. They have promised to discuss the matter and carry conviction with them. They have called the new prison hard names and averred that their projectors were "iniquitous" but beyond these and some gratuitously false assertions in regard to Reno's possessions, the public has not been gratified by anything worthy of remembrance. These facts induced a conclusion, which was no doubt, the basis of Mr. Mighel's bill, and entitles him to much credit for his wisdom and forethought. Mr. Mighels in common with other Carsonites, realizing that taxpayers have resolved not to pay Farmer Treadway for his alkali again, and seeing, as any wise Legislator might, that in view of facts honest men must decide in favor of moving the prison, also fearing that the suit for ejectment might be, as it should, decided against the State, he has attempted by this neat method to avert all these pending evils, and secure a new lease for Carson. Further comment is unnecessary as we only wished the Speaker to have all the honor which is involved in his bill. Our impression is that Assembly bill No. 38 will not effect State Prison matters, but will undoubtedly stamp Mr. Mighels as a very ingenious Carsonite.

Our Congressmen on the Compromise Bill.

Sargent said he was unequivocally opposed to it. Congress had no power to reject any votes that were duly certified by States; and besides, he did not believe it proper to take action which would virtually establish the principle that a party beaten in an election can compel the drawing of the straws afterward. The way the tribunal was to be constituted by stepping circuits, etc., plainly indicated that the purpose was to select certain judges on account of their partisanship, and the four being equally divided in politics, how they would agree upon the fifth. Sargent added, with some feeling, that so far as his observation extended, the Republicans generally give way in such emergencies and lose what is at stake.

Booth expressed himself emphatically in favor of the main features of the bill. He said he was profoundly impressed with the necessity of the establishment of some common ground on which the two parties could meet, and he also realized that no one could secure in the present condition of affairs the precise thing that might individually be deemed best. He would have preferred the adoption of his own joint resolution, which carefully separated all the questions of law and of fact, and might have enabled the Supreme Court to reach conclusions upon the legal questions alone, though at the same time it provided that they might go behind these questions if they deemed it essential to do so. The Joint Committee, however, had been fairly constituted—its members being selected from among the ablest men in both Houses, and the fact that after much prolonged consideration they had been able, with substantial unanimity, to agree upon a plan, commended it strongly to his support.

Mitchell said he was opposed to the bill for various reasons, and should oppose it even if it relates only to future elections, as he did not think the Supreme Court should have anything to do with political matters. He was opposed to establishing any tribunal to determine questions concerning the count of electoral votes outside of Congress itself, and did not consider this sort of a plan necessary to prevent war. The Republican party could safely stand upon the truth that Hayes and Wheeler are legally and fairly elected. "They are," said Mitchell, "just as surely elected as they will be in case the proposed tribunal shall declare them elected, and no declaration to the contrary can change the result already effected." He regarded the whole scheme as an indefensible concession to the Democracy.

Kelly says he believed the Joint Committee's plan provided a just and equitable mode of settling the whole controversy. There must be some concessions on both sides, and this plan gave no advantage to either party. He thought any good cause could safely be submitted to such a tribunal, and was perfectly willing to leave all controverted questions in its hands.

Jones heartily favored the plan. It would secure decisions of all the questions at issue, and, also, its adoption by the contending parties would be a grand crowning triumph for civilization and for the stability of Republican institutions. The tribunal selected was dignified and distinguished and whether their decision was right or wrong the people would cheerfully accept it, and if palpably wrong a just and enlightened public opinion would surely and speedily dismiss from power the party which profited by it. No party could permanently advance its interests by the violation of the public conscience, and, in his opinion, the public look for and demand some plan of settlement like this that shall give the country repose.

Sharon was sick, but the telegram gives his opinion, which is for Congress alone to decide the matter. It is the almost universal belief in Washington political circles to-night that the Commission's plan will be adopted in both Houses by overwhelming majorities.

The members composing the two committees are: Edmunds, Frelinghuysen, Conkling, Bayard and Ransom, Senate Committee; Payne, Hunt, Hewitt, Springer, McCrary, Hoar and Willard, House Committee. Senator Morton was the only member of the Committee who did not sign the report. This of course he would not do unless the Joint Committee would declare that Hayes was elected.

Of the comments of the Pacific Coast members more weight attaches to the opinions of Senators Jones and Booth than all the others combined. They are more conservative and patriotic; less of politicians and better statesmen, than Sargent, Mitchell and Kelly.

Tresspass Act.

INTRODUCED BY MR. STAMPLEY, IN THE SENATE, JANUARY 15TH, 1877.

The People of the State of Nevada, represented in the Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. If any horse, mule, jack, jenny, hog, sheep, goat, or any head of cattle shall, between the first day of May and the first day of October of any year, trespass upon the farming land of any person who cultivates such farming land to the extent of more than thirty acres; or upon the meadow land of any person who cultivates the same for the purpose of cutting hay therefrom, whether from the natural grass, or from grass seed planted, to the extent of more than thirty acres, the owner or manager of such animal or animals shall be liable to the owner or occupier of such premises for all damages sustained by such trespass; and if the trespass be repeated by the neglect of the owner or manager of such animal or animals, he shall, for the second, and every subsequent offense or trespass, be subject to double the amount of damages of such trespass to the owner or occupier of said premises.

SEC. 2. If any owner or occupier of such lands, described in section one of this Act, trespassed upon, shall kill, maim, or materially injure the animal or animals so trespassing, he, she or they shall be liable to the owner or owners of such stock for all damages, and for costs of suit for such damages, when necessarily resorted to for a recovery for such damages.

SEC. 3. The owner or occupier of the lands aforesaid, so trespassed upon, may take up and safely keep such trespassing animal or animals, or as many of them as may be necessary to cover the damages he may have sustained, at the expense of the owner or owners thereof for thirty days; provided, that he shall give notice within two days from the time of taking up such trespassing animal or animals, to the owner or manager of the same, if known, or lose the benefit of this Act for such neglect to so inform such owner or manager, when known. And if the owner or manager of such trespassing animals are unknown to the owner or occupier of the lands aforesaid, then he shall post notices in three public places in the precinct where such trespass was committed, containing a description, as well as the brands and ear marks of such trespassing animal or animals, within three days from the taking up of the same.

SEC. 4. If the owner or manager of such trespassing animal or animals shall claim the same before the expiration of thirty days from the time of taking up the same, he shall have restitution of the same upon paying the damages done, as well as the expense of keeping and posting such animal or animals.

SEC. 5. If at the expiration of thirty days from the date of taking up, the owner or manager of such animal does not pay the damages, charges and costs, then such trespassing animal or animals, or as many of them as may be necessary to cover the damages, charges and costs, shall, upon the application of the owner or occupier of the aforesaid premises, be sold by the order of the Justice of the Peace having jurisdiction, to the highest bidder, and the Constable, or his deputy, shall sell the same; and out of the proceeds of such sale he shall pay to the owner or occupier of the lands aforesaid so trespassed upon, the amount of damages, as well as the cost of posting and keeping such trespassing animal or animals, if a sufficient sum be realized from such sale.

SEC. 7. If the parties cannot agree as to the amount of damages, charges and costs, then each party may choose one disinterested person, and they both may choose a third person, who shall determine the amount thereof; and should the owners not come forward, then the Justice of the Peace shall select three disinterested persons to determine the amount.

SEC. 8. If there shall be any surplus money arising from the proceeds of such sale, after paying all costs, charges and damages, the Constable shall, within ten days from the time of such sale, deposit with the County Treasurer, taking his receipt therefor, such surplus, to the credit of the unknown owner or owners of the trespassing animal sold; and the County Treasurer shall note the same in a book to be kept for that purpose; and he shall, upon satisfactory proof, consisting of affidavits, to be preserved by him, at any time within a year, pay to the unknown owner or owners the said surplus arising from such sale.

SEC. 9. If at the expiration of a year there should be no claimant for such surplus, arising from such sale, then the County Treasurer shall pay the same into the Common School Fund.

BAPTIST SERVICES.—Baptist Services will be held at the new Baptist Church to-morrow morning, and evening, at 11 A. M. and 7 P. M. Rev. W. J. Arnold, Pastor.
Sabbath School immediately after morning service.
A general invitation to all.

METHODIST CHURCH.—Services will be held at the M. E. Church, morning and evening, at the usual hours. Rev. T. S. Urea officiating.
Sunday School at 2 o'clock P. M.
The public are invited.

ATHLETIC.—We saw a wrestler last night at Dave McFarland's, and heard how he came to grief. He travels on his muscle, and what he can do with hands and feet. Last night he was looking for a game, and as usually happens within 40 miles of the Comstock, he found it. Two workmen of the town, who had a few minutes to spare, landed his boat faster than he could launch it, and at the conclusion of these bouts, a little chap weighing 115 pounds, stepped up to try his skill against the professional, whose weight was about 200. This wounded the gladiator deeply, and before he recovered, a citizen of the town expressed his anxiety to bet $500 that a man could be found in five minutes, who would throw this mighty wrestler down, and whip him after he got up. This ended the discussion, and the wrestler says Reno is a very dull town.

JUBILEE SINGERS.—The famous Tennessee Jubilee Singers will visit us on Saturday, the 27th instant, and it is hardly necessary to predict the character of their entertainment. There is character and voice to both song and melody; there are expressions of sadness and ignorant contentment in the tones and words of their plantation songs. The thoughts conveyed by association and remembrance make their efforts a subject for study, and the cultivation given to the troupe has rendered possible the choicest musical effects. There is a wonderful meaning in this rude joining of nature with art, and it seems at once to voice the freedman's hopes and memories. "Get you ready, there's a meetin'" at the Opera House on the 27th.

SILVER-PLATED WARE.—S. N. Davidson announces that he will sell during the holidays quadruple silver-plated, Bakelite, Rings, of Rogers' make, with initials engraved thereon, for 25 cents, largest size, 50 cents. Silver thimbles with initials engraved, 25 cents, and all other goods in proportion.

Jottings.

John Corning, of the C. P. R. R. was at Winnemucca yesterday.

This is the time when coin is acceptable to printers, and this office has a new cash book.

Last night we heard a voice say: "Take that" and a jar upon the sidewalk proved to us that he had taken it. Names unknown. No arrests.

The hay market next year promises to be better than usual.

Go to the Board of Trade to-night at Judge Richardson's rooms.

The Con Poe Trustees hold an adjourned meeting to-night.

The Creditors' meeting adjourned to-day until next Wednesday at 1 P. M. in the Court House.

The Jubilee Singers have made an appointment with us for January 27th See ad.

A Chinaman fell from the top of Earl's Depot yesterday. He was buried for a moment, but soon crawled out and went back to work.

There was considerable excitement to-day over the "wine case" among venders of the spirituous.

The Grand Jury meet next Monday. They make a report on their examination of the records, etc., of the county officers, and pass upon several cases.

Chas. Wright, agent for Messrs. McKesson & Roberts, of New York, is in town to-day, on his way East after a visit to the Sandwich Islands. The firm he represents are proprietors of one of the largest drug houses in the United States.

The civil case of Chielovich vs. Keliher, which was tried to-day in the Justice Court, was decided in favor of Keliher, who pays $20, instead of $34 and costs.

CREDITORS' MEETING.—The creditors of the Consolidated Poe Mining Company held a meeting at the Court House to-day, and rejected a proposition made them by the Board of Trustees. This was to the effect that the Company pay its debts in four payments, nine, twelve, fifteen and eighteen months hence respectively. These sums were to be paid, without interest. A committee, consisting of Messrs. Cunningham, Schaefer, Lippman and Barber, were appointed to confer with the Trustees at their meeting to-night. The creditors express themselves as disposed to settle the matter harmoniously, and we hope such an agreement may be reached, for we have a good opinion of the mine and the intentions of its managers to pay its debts. The present hard times should make every one as lenient as possible toward his neighbors, and we hope all due allowance may be given to the Con Poe.

DISTRICT COURT.—In the District Court Peter Marker, who was cited to appear for contempt of court, came before His Honor, Judge Wright, and was excused. He had not obeyed the summons of the referee in the case of Hagerman vs. Tong Lee. It was a matter pertaining to Marker & Co., and not individual, hence the charge was not sustained.

The case of Ulegram vs. Boverio was set for trial March 15th. The court then gave attention to some probate business.

On Monday the case of the People vs. Thos. Kelly will come up for a hearing. The defendant is the man who shot Fagan, in front of the Saddle Rock, on the 1st of July last.

DRAIN DITCH.—Our ranchers on the north side are all very proud of the ditch which was partially constructed last Summer, and which is intended as an outlet for the standing water upon the lower part of the Meadows. They have just reason to be proud of this, and if the work has been well done, this ditch will improve the fertility of the valley, as well as the health of the inhabitants.

TRUTH.—Bliggins went home last night in such a state that his own dog didn't know him, and as he stood by the fire trying to warm his hands he said: "Hic—'s mighty cold out-hic-feller can't do much-hic—but warm his self hic. "What makes you hic-hic-hic all the time James?" "Got bad-hic-cough." And then he went to bed, satisfied that he had explained matters.

STOX.—The market shows a further improvement to-day, and the small fish who were playing around the margins feel easier. We are glad to record their improved condition, and hope that this may only be a beginning.

THAT PRESS.—We received last week a No. 1 Potter & Co's Drum Cylinder Power Press. We have not said much about our own share in the matter nor do we propose to, as our purchase has only been induced by the support which has generously been given us. But a word is due Mr. N. C. Hawks, manager of Marder, Luse & Co's branch house in San Francisco, for the manner in which the press meets our requirements and his predictions. The new machine is a success in every way; is better than anything which has been said of it, and we know not which to praise most, the fair dealing of Mr. Hawks, the virtues of the press, or the skill of Mr. C. G. McKenzie, whom Mr. Hawks induced to visit Reno and regulate our press. The bed is 32x46 inches, enabling us to run a weekly size of the Virginia Enterprise, which work we shall shortly begin. The press is good, and we have endeavored merely to give praise where it belongs.

RAILROAD NOTES.—The local freight trains and the C. P. emigrant train all joined forces here and will go up the hill together.

The A. & P. telegraph office was crowded with "dem condooctor poy's" all day.

The lightning trains were cancelled last night from both ways. To night the regular express will leave San Francisco and Virginia, as usual.

The snow-plow passed through to-day, going west, also a repair train for keeping the track and lines in order. The V. & T. local trains were also abandoned yesterday but will be taken up to-day.

COMPLETE WRECK.—The walls of Dyer's Hall which were standing yesterday, have given away completely, and the building is a total wreck. The north end alone remains standing and a portion of the scenery looks down upon the ruin. We are not informed whether the Hall is to be rebuilt, but hope that some one may provide the town with a theatre sufficient to accommodate good companies and standard plays. Such a provision for the town would return a profit to the builder.

HOME AGAIN.—Our legislators have again returned to their firesides for a few days. It is rather a difficult matter to get any quiet conversation from them, owing to their disposition to laugh at Mighel's hoodlum bill.

The committee appointed to inspect the prison walls will report some time next week. We were favored with a cart load of valuable legislative documents, the receipt of which we acknowledge with thanks.

NEW BILLS.—Senator Ross has introduced a general act providing for the erection and maintenance of bridges on public highways.

Senator Boardman will soon introduce a bill granting the County Commissioners power to erect a suitable bridge across the Truckee river at Reno.

BROOM MANUFACTURER.—W. K. Hobart is manufacturing a fine carpet broom in Reno, which he will warrant, and to which he invites the attention of our citizens. These brooms are to be standard, and our people should patronize home manufacturers. Hobart may be found at Kimball's machine shop.

RIVERSIDE.—A meeting of the Riverside Club is called for this evening, 7:30 P. M., at the Depot Hotel. All members are requested to be present as election of officers and other matters will come before the meeting. ALLEN C. BRAGG, Secretary.

For a first class Custom made Boot or shoe, go to John Sunderland's, on Virginia street.

SHAVING PARLORS.—Messrs. Morris & Frankfield take this method of announcing to their friends and the public in general, that they have opened a new and elegant hair dressing room, on Virginia street, fronting Budden's photograph gallery. Everything is new, neat and clean, including the very latest improved Rochester Barber Chairs, the only ones to be found in Reno. Everything necessary to be had to insure the comfort and pleasure of customers have been provided. Shaving, Hair Cutting, Shampooing and Dyeing done in a practical and workmanlike manner. All kinds of Hair Tonics and Hair Restoratives always on hand. Ladies and children's hair cutting and shampooing a specialty. MARK H. MORRIS, H. H. FRANKFIELD.

NEW STORE.—Yankee Dodge is again to the front. He is well aware of the hard times and knows that Reno wants goods sold at the lowest rates and for cash. Hence Dodge has opened a store next door to Polard's Hotel, on Commercial Row, where he will keep on hand a general variety of Yankee notions, such as Soap, Pertumery, Hose, Ladies and Gents Underwear, Towels, and Counterpane, Buggy Robes, Horse Blankets, Whips, etc., etc. He has a well assorted stock of goods which he will sell cheaper than anybody. Call and examine them.

Choice dairy cattle for sale, cheap for cash. Apply at this office.

Boots and Shoes made and repaired at John Sunderland's.

AGENT.—W. J. Marsh has been authorized by the well known musical firm of Sherman & Hyde, to effect sales for all their instruments on any terms given at their house, including the Weber, Sherman & Hyde and Cottage Guitars, and Standard Organs. He will sell any of these instruments on such easy installments that everybody can buy with a little effort. J. N. JAQUISH, Commercial Row.

HONEY LAKE APPLES.—J. N. Jaquish has now on hand 800 boxes of the celebrated Honey Lake apples. The established reputation of this fruit is entirely sufficient to warrant its quality. For sale by the box cheap for cash. J. N. JAQUISH, Commercial Row.

WANTED.—A small house, furnished or unfurnished, near the Reno Gas Works. Leave address at this office. 1-14t

DR. G. R. HUTCHINSON extracts teeth for One Dollar, and his teeth for One Dollar and upwards. Artificial teeth from $5 to $20. 9-14t

HOMOEOPATHY.—Dr. R. H. Chase, for many years a Homeopathic Physician, now intends to make Reno his home, and announces to the public that he will treat all cases in which he may be called to attend, according to the latest and best methods in the Homeopathic practice. ## A Dog's Devotion.

[From the Sandusky Register.]

A touching little incident, illustrative of a dog's fidelity to his master was related to us yesterday. A few days ago, as will be remembered, Edward Gensen, a well known blacksmith of this city, slipped and fell on an icy sidewalk and broke his neck. Gensen had for some time owned a dog which he prized very highly and which was much devoted to his master. When the dead man's remains were carried from the house to the hearse on the day of the funeral the dog walked along underneath the coffin, and after the body had been placed in the hearse the faithful animal followed the funeral procession to Oakland Cemetery. When the relatives returned home after the services at the grave the dog was nowhere to be seen. A day or two passed and still he could not be found. Search was then instituted for the animal, and it was ascertained that he had remained at the cemetery, where he waited until the last spade of earth had been placed on the newly made grave of his dead master, and then, as soon as the spot had been deserted, he took a position on the mound, where he remained without food, mourning for his master. He was finally found by Mr. Atwood, who had charge of the cemetery. The dog was very shy, and ran away when approached by any one; but Mr. Atwood, after considerable coaxing, induced the almost famished animal to eat and drink. The poor dog was subsequently brought to the late residence of Gensen, where he now is. The sincerity of that dog's love for his master will certainly never be questioned.

NOT SO IGNORANT.—He sat alone in her father's parlor, waiting for the fair one's appearance, the other evening, when her little brother came cautiously into the room, and gliding up to the young man's side, held out a handful of something, and earnestly inquired:

"I say, mister, what'r them?"

"Those!" replied the young man, solemnly taking one up in his fingers, "those are beans."

"There!" shouted the boy, turning to his sister, who was just coming in, "I knew you lied. You said he didn't know beans, and he does, too!"

The young man's stay was not what you could call a prolonged one that evening.

WHEN twilight droops its dusky wings across the portals of the ebbing day, so to speak, the sentimental husband loves to hold his little wife to his heart, and fondly imagine that she too feels all the poetry of the hour, and longs to enjoy the silent communion it invites. But too often she doesn't, and disengaging herself from an uncomfortable position, merely observes: "George, dear, I don't think the buckwheat cakes had enough yeast in them this morning."—Brooklyn Argus.

A monument to the great Swedish naturalist, Linnæus, was unveiled in Stockholm last week on the 100th anniversary of his death.
